

THESIS TITLES

The following thesis titles have been deposited in the Seattle Pacific College Library. For further information write Donald McNichols, Editor, Institute for Research, Seattle Pacific College, Seattle 99, Washington.

- ALLSOPP: A comparative survey of montanism and the pentacostal movement in the 20th Century.
- CAPP: An inquiry into J. Wesley's understanding of the nature of Methodism with reference to the Christian world mission.
- JERMAN: A study of the typical problems of students in the Quiney Junior High School.
- BROWN: Nature, development and effectiveness of the Woodside school for exceptional children, Highline district.
- BROWN: A suggested program of in-service training for elementary teachers at Kimpese, Belgian Congo.
- COCHRANE: A comparative examination of a selected Greek philosophy and certain basic concepts of Christianity.
- CRONKHITE: Developing an indigenous church in Columbia.
- ELLIS: A comparison of the Jewish and Christian Apocalyptic expectation.

FEE: The witness of history to Christ in the writing of F. W. Farrar.

FERRELL: The organization of Christian education in churches of Seattle, Washington.

HANCOCK: John Wesley's contribution to education.

KRIENKE: The worship of the New Testament church.

MORGAN: A series of resource units in safety education for the fourth grade.

NEWTON: A study of the present status of the elementary vice-principals in the state of Washington.

NOBLE: A critical study of representative modern applications of St. Paul's missionary principles.

OHSBERG: The life and ministry of Robert Hall.

RICHARDS: The reaction of students, parents, and graduates to the course of study of the Ential High School.

RYFF: An examination of the indigenous Church ... South Africa.

SHULTS: Suggestions for development of a social studies instruction program for Seattle gifted Junior High students.

SIMPSON: A study of the use of picture sequence materials in the Sunday schools in Seattle, Washington.

SMITH: A suggested science program for the Junior High Schools of the Highline school district.

SPANGLER: The development of a teacher's orientation handbook.

SUTHERLAND: An analysis of the eschatology of Martin Luther.

SVELANDER: A resource unit for teaching professional problems in a school of nursing.

TILNER: Current practices and methods for the observance of American Education week in selected elementary schools of the state of Washington.

WAGNER: The expository method of G. Campbell Morgan.

WILSON: An examination of the Pauline idea of preaching.